Kolkata, 19th April 2018: BIG FM, India's largest radio network, known for innovative programming and concept based shows, has announced Season 2 of its popular show 'Lamhe'. The outstanding response received for Season 1 gave impetus to bringing back the captivating show in a bigger avatar. Titled 'Lamhe with Zain', the show is anchored by the talented actor Zain Khan Durrani and will air across markets. This time around, listeners will be treated to riveting stories revolving around relationships and emotions on this fiction based thematic drama show. The show launched on 16th April 2018, will air from 11pm – 12am on weekdays in Kolkata.

The refreshing format of the show ensures that each episode will bring with it a unique story, which will leave the audiences asking for more. Listeners will also be treated to some excellent songs, which will be seamlessly weaved into the narrative, thereby delivering a complete entertaining experience.

On his debut as an RJ, show host & actor Zain Khan Durrani said, "Storytelling has always fascinated me and when I heard the concept of Season 2 of Lamhe, it was an instant nod at my end. It has been one of the most compelling radio shows and I hope I can take its popularity a notch higher since this season is bringing some of the most engaging stories around relationships and emotions for listeners. I've already played an RJ in my recent movie and I thoroughly enjoyed the experience. Looking forward to making this memorable as well."
