New Delhi, March 13, 2019: BIG FM, one of India’s largest radio stations that recently underwent a major revamp, with its tagline transitioning to ‘Dhun Badal Ke Toh Dekho’ has come up with a new celebrity-based show - ‘BIG Sunday Celeb’. The show is hosted by popular RJ Khurafati Nitin, and features the who’s who of Delhi. Renowned authoritative figures in Delhi take to opening up and sharing their personal side with the audience in this one-of-its-kind show.

RJ Khurafati Nitin who has always charmed the audience with his attitude and sense of humour, will have engaging and fun conversations with leading personalities in authority. The first episode of ‘BIG Sunday Celeb’ witnessed none other than Deputy Chief Minister of Delhi who not only talked about his life as a politician but also revealed his secret passion for radio; along with sharing other interesting details about how he handled exam stress during his childhood, his love for books and much more. The show’s line-up comprises of powerful personalities like CBSE Controller of Examinations Dr Sanyam Bhardwaj, Election Commission Delhi CEO Dr. Ranbir Singh among others.

Commenting on this new show, RJ Khurafati Nitin said, “I am really enjoying hosting this show. This is a very different experience for me since I am getting to ask questions which people have hesitated to ask these authorities. More importantly, it is an experience like no other for our listeners who can connect with these authorities on a different level, through the show.”

‘BIG Sunday Celeb’ started-off on March 10 and it airs every Sunday from 10 am - 12 noon.
